THE PREFACE TO THE Christian Reader, touching the two Alphabets ensuing.

O O D Christian Reader, because thou mayest enioye and reape the profite of these two Alphabets of directions vnto Common places hereafter folowing, which I haue in maner of a brieue Concordance, or large & ample Index, collected, digested, and caused to be imprinted for thy commoditie: I thought it not amisse to aduertise thee somewhat touching the principall contents, vse, and commoditie of them. Wherefore be it knowen vnto thee, that in the first of the saide Alphabets, I haue together placed by themselves in a maner, all the strange names and wordes which are scatteringly to be founde here and there throughout the whole Bible, remayning written in the Hebrewe, Chaldean, Syrian, Greeke, or Latine languages: to the ende thou mayst by that meanes, learne to be conduced vnto so much of the interpretation, Historie, Common places, and knowledge of them, and euery of them, as I trust thou shalt thinke needful. And for that in diuers translations these strange names & words are written diuersly, I haue, in respect thereof, onely in this Alphabet, folowed y^e Geneua Translation, as most allowed in that behalfe, and yet haue placed in the Margent thereof, how in writing, other Translations differ from the same: to the ende not onely such corruptions as are found for want of the true Orthographie of them, may appeare vnto those that are skillfull in those languages, to be amended, when time shall minister occasion (as some of them are already) but also the vnskillfull Readers be not defrauded of such commodity, as might grow vnto them thereby, especially if they should haue occasion to looke for any word in the same Alphabet, after the same maner of writing, that they had seene or read it in other Copies, and not finde the same accordingly. Secondly, in the other of the saide Alphabets, I haue likewise by themselves placed all, and as many proper and vsuall English wordes, as are conteyned in the same Byble, conducing to the finding out of the most fittest sentences, & best common places, tending to the prouing or verifying of any article and doctrine, concerning our Christian fayth and Religion, or belonging to any other godly or necessary instruction: so as if thou wouldest vnderstand what is to be learned in the Scriptures touching God or his power, his wisdom, or his loue, his mercie, or his truth, his iustice, his promises, his plagues, or his punishments, &c. either else concerning Christ, or the holy Ghost, Angel, or Man, Nature, or Lawe, Sinne, or Grace, Faith, or Vnbeliefe, Predestination, or Reprobation, Iustification, Regeneration, Church or Sacraments, &c. or to be brieue, if thou wouldest vnderstande what is necessarily to be learned in the same Scriptures, touching the estate, authoritie, office or duetie of Kings or Princes, Iudges or Magistrates, Bishops and Pastors, Elders or Ministers, Fathers and Mothers, Masters and Mistresses, Subiects, and Parishioners, Husbands and Wiues, Children and seruants, and how euery one, of what degree, estate, condition, or profession soeuer, he, she, or they be of, ought to behaue themselves towards God, and one towards another, and what is to be spoken and not spoken, and what is to be done and left vndone of them or any of them, by the rule of Gods word: thou art not voide of competent knowledge or directions in this Alphabet to ayde thee. Thirdly, to further thee to finde out in these two Alphabets, anye thing whereof I haue before made mention, thou art to resort Alphabetically vnto the first of them, with the name of anye Man, Woman, Countrey, Citie, Place, Riuer, Idoll, &c. in the same conteyned: and also vnto the second of them, with the chiefe word of any sentence or common place therein mentioned, which thou art most affected vnto, or desirest to be satisfied of: and by that meanes in euery of them shalt thou, by Gods grace, without fayle be conduced, and to thy great ease directed, and as it were, ledde by the hande, euen to the Booke, Chapter, and Verse, where the same, (or so much thereof, as for a godly, Christian, and necessary knowledge shall be thought requisite) is to be found out most readily: alwayes remembering, that whatsoever conuenient knowledge wanteth in these Alphabets, as touching the text whereunto it directeth thee, is there supplied by the Annotations, or quotations in the Margent. Moreover, good Christian Reader, thou hast also to obserue how that y^e first Figure, or Figures, which followe next after any Booke whereunto thou shalt be guided, signifieth or signifie the Chapter, and the other the verse or verses of the same Chapter, where any of the foresaid things is to be sought for. Again, where as thou shalt after a Chapter, and otherwhiles after some verse or verses of a Chapter, finde this marke or Starre * quoted, thou art to vnderstand, howe that the whole Chapter, or from the verse of that Chapter where the same Starre is placed forward vnto the end thereof, entreateth, or in some good respects chiefly belongeth, and may be applied to the same Historie, matter, or common place thou seekest for, except there be any verses following the same *, for then the common place is to be vnderstoode, not to excede those verses. Finally, whereas I haue sometimes in these Alphabets partly set downe the sense, and that which may properly be gathered of the text, which thou art directed vnto, & not the very words them selues, and otherwhiles repeated one thing in diuers places, but yet to diuers ends: I trust that wil not offend thee, sith I haue so done for the vnlearneds sake, because the same coulde, ne can be made too plaine for them, and therefore haue vsed nor so great a curiositie and abbreuiation in that behalfe, as perhaps some other would haue had me: and yet considering to what a great quantitie these two Alphabets are growen vnto, (ouer that I thought they would) I haue bin forced to leaue out somewhat, that otherwise I woulde haue added vnto them, which hereafter by Gods grace I will supply: thus much touching the principall contentes, commoditie, and vse of the aforesaide Alphabets, which with such other doubts as may trouble thee, I mistrust not, but by well perusing of the same, and practise (with the diuersitie of letter which is vsed in them) will soone appeare very easie, plaine, and apparant vnto thee, albeit I particularly touch not euery of them. Now therefore to conclude, if my simple trauaile and paines taken herein shall be well accepted of thee, I meane, of the more skilful and learned Readers, to be polished and amended of them (if they shall so deeme necessarie and conuenient) to the better edification of the Church of God, whereof they are or ought to be ioynt members, helpers, and furtherers, so farre forth as their Talents will stretch vnto, and that in the spirit of meekenesse, sobrietie, and charitie: and of the lesse learned or vnlearned Reader, (vnto whome I confesse my selfe the greatest debtour) as an ayd and helpe to their godly studies, and honest trade of life, and withall Christianly to be construed of all men, as a meanes and furtherance, and not an hinderance vnto any, I shall for my part thinke my selfe wel requited, and more then sufficiently rewarded, in that I shall enioy my desire, & that which I longed for. And so beseeching Almighty God to giue vs his grace to be studious of vnitie, and bringing forth such fruites, as may declare our vndoubted election in Christ Iesus, I take my leaue of thee, this xxij. of December.

Anno Domini.

Thine in the Lord, Robert F. Herrey.

The first Alphabet of directions to common places, conteyning all the Hebrew, Caldean, Greeke, Latin, or other strange names, dispersed throughout the whole Bible, conducing to the profitablest things thereof. The further contentes and vie of the which, more at large is expressed in the Preface proceeding.
